

our struggle as witches is an unsettling struggle.

#Landback from settler peoples and cultures is core to our struggle.

we must recall that the persecution of witches in Europe and elsewhere has gone hand-in-hand with settler land grabs and violence against the lands.

so, witches and magical practitioners must centre, fight alongside and learn from Indigenous movements.

#LandBack means both the dismantling of settler control for material return of Indigenous peoples and cultures to the lands as well as spiritual return to and of the lands.

#LandBack means end of all genocides, forced displacements, conquest, and domination of the lands and their peoples.
